The Legal Aspect of the Question.

It would seem that the gentlemen who manage what is known as the ring, realize that they cannot defeat Mr. BEAUDRY unless they are able to induce the people, or at least a portion of them, to believe the BERNARD slander—a fabrication which the card of Colonel SMITH and the record in the case of DES AUTEL vs. AMAT conclusively proves to be false from beginning to end. But this man BERNARD is a large stockholder in the Los Angeles Water Company, and his hatred of Mr. BEAUDRY is so great that he will say anything and everything and perhaps, swear to it, in order to injure him. The Star of yesterday morning contains a long string of words which, but for the fact that we are told in the caption is the legal aspect of the question, no one would understand it to be anything but a chapter of misrepresentation transferred from the editorial rooms of the Express to the columns of its coworker in the cause of the ring. The real legal aspect of the BERNARD lot question has either been carefully avoided or purposely overlooked by the gentlemen who are laboring so assiduously to blacken the character of a man who they in one column assert is the owner of many broad acres and a very rich man, and in the next accuse him of stealing, or attempting to steal a lot which the alleged owner admits was of such small value that he never took the trouble to find out whether he owned it or not. With all thinking men this fact will at once dispel the charge of unfair dealing sought to be fastened upon Mr. BEAUDRY. But the main feature in the case to which we call the attention of this community, is the question of veracity between Bishop AMAT and this man BERNARD. The Star is our authority for saying that BERNARD asserts that until he was informed by Mr. BEAUDRY he was not aware that he ever had any claim to the lot in question. This it is worth while that the candid reader should bear in mind, BERNARD asserts that he did not know he ever had a claim to any part of the tract, while the record shows that he had years before given Bishop AMAT a parole title, which is a verbal promise for a deed, to his lot in the College tract. The record is confirmed by the Bishop. If any further proof is required to show that this man BERNARD has falsified himself in his effort to slander Mr. BEAUDRY, we point to the map of the tract which it was proposed the city should deed to the Bishop, in which was marked a lot bearing the name of BERNARD. We pass over the fact that the city recognized BERNARD as the owner of the lot, by marking it in the map of the tract she deeded to the Bishop. We shall make no comment on the action of BERNARD in first giving the Bishop a parole title to the lot, then denying that he ever owned it and afterward selling it to Mr. BEAUDRY. The legal aspect of the question begins and ends with these facts: First, no matter whether BERNARD had ever received a deed to the lot, the city admitted his right to such deed by marking it as his property in the map of the tract donated to the Bishop. Second, BERNARD did know he owned the lot and he claimed it, or he would not have given the Bishop a parole title to it; and, third, BERNARD knew that the deed he gave Mr. BEAUDRY was for property for which he had promised a deed to Bishop AMAT. The Common Council could not have been misled as to the validity of BERNARD'S claim to the lot, because his claim was clearly admitted in the map of the College tract. The motive of this man BERNARD in deeding property to Mr. BEAUDRY to which he had long before given Bishop AMAT a parole title, is found in the statement that he had had trouble with the Bishop—it was spite work, and done through a desire to annoy and if possible injure the Bishop. The motive which prompts him to now deny that he ever owned the lot, and assert that Mr. BEAUDRY induced him to make application for a deed under false representations, is a wish to defeat the election of Mr. BEAUDRY and thereby defeat the wishes of the people in the appointment of a Board of Water Commissioners and thus secure a continuance of the extortionate rates charged for water by the Los Angeles Water Company, in which company he (BERNARD) is a large stockholder. This is the legal, and in fact the only aspect in which right thinking men can regard the BERNARD falsehood.

The Issues of the Contest.

We doubt if the efforts of those who are so anxious to deceive the people as to the real issues which enter into the election next Monday, will be successful. There is too much at stake for either side to be greatly deluded. The struggle is between the people and a few individuals who, having amassed great wealth through what they term their exclusive franchises, are determined to leave no effort untried to retain the power through which they have so long levied and collected from the masses an immense annual revenue. There are laws compelling the appointment of a Board of Water Commissioners, whose business it is to both fix the rates for water at a fair price and to see that a good article is furnished. The services of an honest Board of Commissioners would save the people of Los Angeles thousands of dollars per annum in the cost of water and in doctor's bills. It is to prevent the appointment of this Board or secure the appointment of one that will act as they direct, that the advocates of Messrs. SABICHI and TIFFANY are now spending money freer than water. It is to secure an enforcement of the law and to obtain the justice which the law guarantees, that the people—the property-holders and the tax-payers—are rallying to the support of Mr. BEAUDRY. This is one feature of this contest, and it is an important one. The HERALD has no quarrel with the Water Company, nor is it desirous of depriving that corporation of a single legal privilege it possesses, but we do desire and shall insist that it comply with the law regulating all such corporations in the State. We object, and the objection is sustained by the people, to giving this corporation the unconditional right to close public streets, build flumes over and through private property, occupying and holding city lots and damaging a large amount of individual property with a reservoir constructed for the sole purpose of holding nearly seven acres of city lots for almost a generation. The HERALD does not recognize the justice of these things, and if the people are true to their own interests and true to themselves—they will on Monday say to this corporation "You have rights and in the maintenance of them we will protect you, but we also have rights and you must not and shall not invade them." This water monopoly assumes the position that it is immaculate; that whatever it does or does not is right, and no man or community shall say it nay. Hence when the HERALD intimates that an improvement might be made in the quality of water our citizens drink, this pure institution gets up a shower of indignation, rushes off and commences suit against the HERALD for $25,000 damages. A part of the contest on Monday is to decide whether this Water Company, that nothing must be said against, or the people, own the city of Los Angeles. Another of the issues to be settled on that day is whether the Water Company has a right to prevent a citizen from conveying water to portions of the city in which it has refused to furnish it. The election of Mr. SABICHI or Mr. TIFFANY and the ring's Councilmen will be followed by an attempt to take from Mr. BEAUDRY the privilege granted him by the city to convey water on the high lands and thus depreciate the taxable property of the city many hundreds of thousands of dollars. These are a few of the main features which will present themselves in the struggle on Monday. The people do not wish to deprive the Water Company of a single prerogative, but they should see to it that that corporation does not obtain an exclusive franchise to run the city government as well as to furnish the people with water.

A Pertinent Question.

EDITOR HERALD: If Mr. Beaudry is guilty of the acts with which the Evening Express now charges him and the proofs of which it claims are on record and have been for years, is not that paper more culpable than Mr. Beaudry in not making the facts known long ago, in place of lauding as a public-spirited and liberal-minded citizen the man it now denounces as everything that is bad. VOTER.

Los Angeles, Dec. 2, 1874.

The charges of the Express are false in toto, and none are more fully aware of their falseness than the managers of that sheet. The records disprove every charge yet made against Mr. BEAUDRY and prove the authors of those charges wilful and malicious slanderers. Until Mr. BEAUDRY became a candidate for Mayor and the Express accepted the wages of the slanderer, it could hardly find words to express its praise of him.

What the Slanderers Have Done.

EDITOR HERALD: I am an old resident of Los Angeles, having lived in this city ten years. I am not the personal friend of Mr. Beaudry, and at the opening of this campaign I had no thought of voting for him. But I cannot endorse, nor do I believe any other conscientious man will endorse, the course the Evening Express has pursued toward him. We all know Mr. Beaudry to be an honest man, and the attempt to brand him as dishonorable by those who know the falsity of their statements and know that their attacks on him are for the sole purpose of defeating his election is, I am confident, condemned by every honest man in this city. If worthy citizens who consent to become candidates for office are compelled to submit to the vile attacks of newspapers that would slander a woman if paid for their work, we shall soon find it difficult to induce good men to run for office. I shall now vote for Mr. Beaudry, because I believe it my duty to aid in vindicating the character of a respectable citizen against the vile attacks and false assertions of newspapers that have the reputation of always being for sale to the highest bidder.

AN OLD RESIDENT.

Los Angeles, Dec. 3.

Our correspondent speaks but the sentiment of hundreds of our citizens. Mr. BEAUDRY is too well and favorably known to be injured at home by the foul, malicious charges that hatred and malice have trumped up about him. The people and journals that are now hurling their slime against him have until a few weeks ago contributed their testimony almost daily to his worth as a citizen and integrity as a man. Mr. BEAUDRY will receive many votes on Monday which will be cast for the sole reason that "An Old Resident" will cast his—to rebuke the slanderers of private character.

MONDAY.....DEC. 7, 1874.

Tickets.

In order to accommodate the people and enable voters to supply themselves with ballots before going to the polls, we this morning issue fifteen hundred copies of the HERALD-Extra, in each of which are folded three ballots—all the straight People's Ticket. As far as it could be done, the ballots are delivered in the proper wards; but as some errors in this respect will necessarily occur, we suggest to all voters to closely examine their ballots and see that they are for their respective wards.

A Trick of the Ring.

Citizens, look well to your tickets. Scan them closely. We have been shown a ticket, of which we are told thousands are printed, on which the name of "P. PEAUDRY" appears for Mayor. This is intended to deceive the friends of Mr. BEAUDRY and cause them to lose their vote by using a ballot that will be thrown out. The ring managers must be reduced to the lowest extremes when they will stoop to a trick so contemptible as this. The Code makes the intentional misprinting of a candidate's name a misdemeanor, and the office doing this dirty work for the ring will have an opportunity of answering to the law for its smartness and venality.

Voters, Beware.

We are informed that a number of different kinds of frauds on the People's Ticket are in the hands of the ring wire-pullers. One of these is the entire ring ticket for Councilmen, with the name of P. BEAUDRY on the top. This ticket has been issued by the ring in the hope of deceiving a sufficient number of voters to secure the election of their Councilmen. They have no hope of defeating Mr. BEAUDRY, and are using his name to carry in their Councilmen. The enemies of Mr. CARRILLO have had printed a large number of the People's Ticket, on which the name of one of the other candidates appear for Marshal. These tickets are all spurious. None of the candidates on the People's Ticket nor their friends have printed any but the straight ticket. Voters, examine your tickets closely.

How Terrible Now.

The Express is trying to injure Mr. BEAUDRY through the fact that he was President of the Los Angeles Water Company the first year of its existence. If the disgrace of being connected with monopoly hangs to a man so long, what an odor the Express must be in that is owned by the Water Company now. When Mr. BEAUDRY was a member of the Water Company the corporation paid the city $1,500 per year, but as soon as he left it the sum was cut down to 400 per year—a loss of many thousand dollars to the tax-payers.

Insult to the Germans.

A few weeks ago the Express offered a direct insult to our German born citizens by announcing it as his opinion that the Chinese tongue was more useful in this country than the German language. Yet that paper now adds insult to injury by beseeching our German born fellow-citizens to vote for Mr. TIFFANY; or, if they cannot do that, then to vote for SABICHI.

All for Beaudry.

The Star says a vote for TIFFANY is a vote thrown away; that the contest for Mayor is between BEAUDRY and SABICHI. The Express says SABICHI is neither smart nor honest. If we accept the conclusions of these two papers, both working in the interest of the ring, about the ring candidates, Mr. BEAUDRY is the only candidate for whom the people can vote.

Beaudry All the Time.

The Express says the contest is between BEAUDRY and TIFFANY and a vote for SABICHI is a vote thrown away. The Star says the contest is between BEAUDRY and SABICHI, and a vote for TIFFANY is a vote thrown away. Both papers are right and both wrong. BEAUDRY is the people's candidate and a vote for either SABICHI or TIFFANY is a vote thrown away.

Its Animus.

To illustrate how bitter and deep is the ring's hatred of the People's Ticket, we may mention that the Express refused to print the names of the candidates as an advertisement.

The "Express" and Monopolies.

The Express has passed through a terrible ordeal the last few weeks. The little traitor complains bitterly of being "on a straight twixt two." Its circumstances were not more trying than that which it has passed through during this campaign. The poor thing wilted in the tight squeeze until it is a mere nothing. It occupied the position of trying to stand between the grinding monopolies and its candidate and make the outside voters believe they were separate and distinct. One day it would abuse Mr. BEAUDRY and praise the water monopoly; next day it would abuse Mr. BEAUDRY and bolster up its candidate; the next praise its candidate and make a feeble fling at the water monopoly. But it is too thin. The people see all through it, and have had many hearty laughs, and will annihilate it on Monday.

The Roberts Libel.

The ring's Evening Hireling again reverts to its ROBERTS libel. After the HERALD exposed the game of CHAPMAN and ROBERTS to force money from Mr. BEAUDRY, the Express had nothing to say about its "poor sick man" for several days, but last evening it returned to its blackmailing scheme. ROBERTS tried the card business, but his statement showed so plainly that the whole purpose for which CHAPMAN gave him a deed to property he did not own was to blackmail Mr. BEAUDRY that the Express people advised him to write no more, alleging that they could outlie him. ROBERTS' threat to Mr. BEAUDRY that if he did not come to his terms he would "use his influence against him in the election," tells the whole story: give me money or I will get the Express to publish a lie about you.

Councilmen.

While there may be, and doubtless are, other good men running for Councilmen, those whose name appear on the People's Ticket, headed by Mr. BEAUDRY for Mayor, are gentlemen about whose honesty of purpose and fidelity to the people there can be no question. If you vote for the Councilmen on the People's Ticket you will have a Council that will see that the law is enforced requiring the appointment of a Board of Water Commissioners, which will be thousands of dollars saved to the consumers of water. Vote the People's Ticket and you break up the old monopoly ring that has so long had everything their own way in this city. Let the people govern awhile. We are not prospering as we should under the reign of the ring.

"The Watered Press."

Every voter in Los Angeles should read a communication which we print this morning under the caption of "The Watered Press." It speaks volumes to our people. It uncovers the springs which impel the ring press to the vehement assailment of Mr. BEAUDRY, and explains who prompts the libeling of an old and highly esteemed citizen, as well as points with unerring certainty to the tools used in slandering the character of a gentleman whose only fault is that he stands between the people and oppressive and exacting monopolies. "The Watered Press" is known to the people and its influence is nothing.

Effect of Its Slanders.

Yesterday a prominent manager of the ring was heard to say that the libels and slanders of the Express had added three hundred to the support of Mr. BEAUDRY. This is probably understating the fact. All good citizens will to-day place their seal of condemnation on the libels and slanders that have been heaped upon one of their citizens. Unless this habit of maligning and traducing private character is rebuked, worthy and respectable citizens will not in future consent to serve the people as public officers.

Bernard Tangles Up.

Through a sort of vague consciousness that it is no longer worth while for it to repeat the BERNARD slander, the Express now gives the statement as coming from BERNARD himself. If, after denying that he ever owned a lot, then having the record prove that he had sold it to Bishop AMAT and afterward sold it to Mr. BEAUDRY, any statement that this man BERNARD will make receives the slightest credit it will be among such parties as the Express represents—people who have taught themselves to believe anything against Mr. BEAUDRY.

They Admit Defeat.

All day yesterday the SABICHI men were busy drawing their secret made bets that BEAUDRY would be defeated. They give up the fight and acknowledge among themselves that Mr. BEAUDRY is the popular candidate.

Beandry and Sabichi.

It is well understood that Mr. SABICHI, if elected, will be a mere piece of wax in the hands of the water sharps. He has given a proof of this in the report of the Committee on Zanjas, of which he is a member pro tem., when on the 19th ult. he reported in favor of granting to this monopoly, without conditions, the privilege of building a flume four feet high and five feet wide across private property, greatly to its damage; also in favor of granting permission to close three streets. It is equally apparent that the organ of Mr. TIFFANY has for several days been making overtures to the Water Company for the support of the monopoly. In fact, it would be just as well to elect the Water Company Mayor as either SABICHI or TIFFANY. The absurb attempt of the hired presses of the monopoly to injure the reputation of Mr. BEAUDRY by slander and vituperation has fallen harmless at his feet. He has been a well known and honest citizen in Los Angeles for twenty-two years, and no one ever breathed a word against him until the monopoly set their pack upon him. He has been an active and useful business man and few men present a fairer record. One thing is certain: his interests are the interests of the city, while the interests of the monopoly and their candidates are opposed to the public welfare and the growth and prosperity of Los Angeles.

Facts for the People.

It is well known that the Water Company claims to have a capital of $200,000, paid up, and yet refuse to pay taxes for the support of the city government. Yet they are now begging the Council to grant them another lot for a reservoir—which they do not need and could not occupy, except at the risk of flooding the business portion of the city, besides closing three streets. If the Water Company ticket is elected, we shall have no regulation of the rates of water by Commissioners appointed according to law. Their war upon Mr. BEAUDRY is prompted by the fact that he has a system of his own for furnishing cheap water to the citizens of Los Angeles and the company see that if he is elected, without any expense to the city, their own monopoly will be broken down and they will not be able to compel the citizens to purchase their water at famine prices. They desire, by the election of a servile city government to break down competition and continue their oppressive monopoly.

Los Angeles Taxes and the Water Monopoly.

It is notorious that one of the strongest objections with strangers to immigration to this county is the enormous rate of taxation and the heavy weight of our city and county debt—amounting to more than half a million of dollars. It is equally well known that there is nothing to show for this, or next to nothing.

This burden has been created by a ring of about half a dozen speculators who are at present merged into the Los Angeles City Water Company. They seek to elect and control the city government for the purpose of enabling them to perpetuate their schemes of taxing the people of the city for the private emolument of the ring.

To mention one of their schemes of public plunder: In 1869 the City Fathers, as they are called, ordered a sewer built of 300 feet in length on Commercial street. The contract price was $4,500 in gold. The City Council, without any authority of law, issued and sold $27,000 in script to raise this gold—well knowing they had no right to issue script for less than its face. Thus in various instances has the debt of the city been created and illegally augmented. It is well known that this scrip was purchased by some friends of the leading members of the Council and who are now preminent members of the Water Company.

The Grand Jury of the county of whom Mr. Beaudry was foreman indicted some of the City Council for this job. There was a verdict of conviction by a jury but the defendants escaped by a technicality on appeal to the Supreme Court.

It should also be remembered that the City Council released the Water Company from the payment of about $29,000 due the city on account of rent, the only consideration for which was the removal of the box on the plaza, which was placed there in violation of law.

These are only specimens of the schemes of the ring. RESIDENT.

Beware of the "Express."

The autenticity and correctness of a chapter from the Bible would be doubted in this community if it appeared in the Express, but as that sheet will get out this morning or early in the day with a tissue of falsehoods. We warn voters to beware of it. It lies for the very lust of lying and—the ring's money.

Another Ring Dodge.

Yesterday evening Mr. SABICHI issued a little poster in which he intimates that Mr. BEAUDRY has made a combination with the Water and Gas Companies. This is false and is a trick of the ring. It is too bald to deceive any one.

Final Suggestion.

With this morning's issue of the HERALD we make our final suggestion to the people of Los Angeles as to whom they should place in the Mayor's chair. From the opening of the campaign, which has been rather a long one for a municipal election, the HERALD has espoused and advocated what it conscienciously believes to be the cause of the people. In doing this, it has attacked no man's private character and made no statements other than those it has believed, and yet believes to be strictly true. When we have mentioned individual candidates by name it has been to call attention to their public or official record. We have charged that Mr. TIFFANY has permitted himself to be made use of by the ring to divert votes from Mr. BEAUDRY which they could not secure for Mr. SABICHI, and the charge is substantiated by Mr. TIFFANY himself in remaining a candidate while admitting that he did not expect to be elected. We have charged that if Mr. TIFFANY should be elected he would act with the Water Company and against the interests of the people, and he sustained that charge, when he as foreman of the Grand Jury, went out of his line of duty to visit and whitewash the reservoir of the company for the sole purpose of strengthening the company's libel suit against the HERALD. The correctness of these charges are so patent that Mr. TIFFANY has never attempted to deny them through the columns of his own paper. In preferring these charges against Mr. TIFFANY our purpose was not to attack him as a private citizen, but to show that he is under influences and bound by ties which will prevent his equitable performance of the duties he would be called upon to discharge as Mayor of the city of Los Angeles. The HERALD has opposed the election of Mr. SABICHI on the ground that he was the nominee of a ring who have boasted that they, and not the people, were the managers and controllers of the municipal affairs of this city. We have made this charge on the ground that the ring have admitted him as their candidate, that he is so recognized and spoken of by all, that they are using their money and influence to secure his election, and that he is in nightly conference with the managers of that ring. We oppose the election of the ring's municipal candidate, because with municipal officers they are able to control, the ring will seek their own profit at the expense of the people and the sacrifice of much private property. They will defy the law requiring the creation of a Board of Water Commissioners, and thereby maintain the present or still more increased water rates. They will obtain possession of more city property, they will close up public streets, they will destroy a large amount of private property on the side of, and along the base of Fort Hill by erecting a reservoir on the summit of that hill; they will secure the unconditional privilege of constructing a long flume through and over private property, to the serious injury of that property, and they will endeavor to destroy the system of water works which now convey an abundance of water on the high lands on the northwest side of the river. More than this the election of Mr. SABICHI will inaugurate a scheme for turning the water from several zanjas now supplying the gardens and vineyards in the western part of the city to the eastern side of the river—a measure calculated to work immense damage to the residents of the western half of the city. For these reasons, and none other, the HERALD is opposed to the election of Mr. SABICHI. He will owe his defeat to the fact that he has permitted himself to become the instrument of a ring and not the candidate of the people, and to the pledges he has made to carry out measures for the benefit of a few individuals and to the injury of the masses. The HERALD advocates the election of Mr. BEAUDRY because it believes him to be the only candidate who will stand between the people and the aggressions of those who care little how great they may oppress the many so the few are enriched. Of his integrity as a man and worth as a citizen, we are assured by the people of Los Angeles, with whom he has lived and been intimately associated for the past twenty-two years, and this opinion is endorsed by the very journals that interest is now causing to denounce him for everything that is vile. He is an active, enterprising, liberal, live citizen. He is so closely identified with Los Angeles that her interests are his. No better evidence need be required that Mr. BEAUDRY is a man of the people, standing with and fighting for them, than that he is opposed by every ring, exclusive franchise corporation and subsidy schemer in the city. He has by expending his own means greatly enhanced the value of property in this city. He has made extensive improvements, for which neither the city nor her people have been called upon to contribute a dollar. He is building houses, digging streets, irrigating land and furnishing homes for the many, but he is doing it all with his own money. He is known as a man of the strictest honesty in all his dealings, and he is doing more to encourage people and capital to locate in Los Angeles than all the special franchise corporations with which Los Angeles is cursed. He is a progressive man, and, we believe, the man of all the candidates now running for Mayor whom the people should elect.

Still Another Slander Pinned.

The hired slanderer which is just now in the employ of the Water Company has had something to say about the case of STOEMER, out of which it seeks to injure Mr. BEAUDRY. Of course there is nothing in it, except the falsehoods of the Express, but as there may be a few new arrivals who have not learned the venal and untruthful character of that paper, it will be well to state the facts, which are as follows: Of 20 acres lying between Second and Fourth streets, and running far enough into the hills to make that number of acres which Mr. BEAUDRY had divided into building lots, one tract was deeded by the city to JESSIE D. HUNTER on the 7th of May, 1855. The other ten-acre tract, in which is the lot of HELEN STOEMER, was granted by the city to CONCHA DE LEWIS on the 19th of February, 1855, and by her and her husband, HENRY A. LEWIS, conveyed to HENRY HANCOCK, on the 10th of July, 1856. On the 16th of March, 1867, the Sheriff, T. A. SANCHEZ, sold the above described ten acres owned by HENRY HANCOCK, at public auction, to satisfy a judgment in favor of KELLER and against HANCOCK. Mr. BEAUDRY, being the highest bidder, was the purchaser. He divided the tract into lots, and among others sold lot 11, block 3, to HELEN STOEMER, on the 30th of March, 1870, for $350, payable in monthly installments of $10 each, without interest. She paid $15 and then sold some property to Mr. BEAUDRY for $20, making $35 in all. Meantime, Major HANCOCK had squatted on this tract, and Mr. BEAUDRY instituted suit for possession, which was decided in his favor. During the pendency of this suit, Mr. BEAUDRY had suspended the collection of the installments, but when it was decided in his favor he sent his collector for the money, who was told by Mrs. STOEMER that she had obtained a deed from the city, and claiming that it was her lot, refused to pay further installments. After delaying some time, Mr. BEAUDRY again sent his collector to her for the installment, with the notification that if she did not desire to pay further installments she need not do so, and he would return the money already paid on the surrender of the agreement to sell, which she held. This left her at liberty to keep the lot, if she desired to pay for it. The woman sent back her answer that she would not surrender the agreement, would not pay the balance due, and would keep the lot; adding that if Mr. BEAUDRY wanted the lot, he must pay her for it. After this she was notified that if she persisted in her effort to defraud Mr. BEAUDRY out of the lot, he would be compelled to commence proceedings at law against her, which was done. The case was tried before JAMES LANDER, Court Commissioner, who rendered judgment in favor of Mr. BEAUDRY on the 28th of September, 1871. Out of this suit to recover his own property, the slanderer seeks to make Mr. BEAUDRY guilty of an act almost as mean as some of its own.

What the "Express" Said.

The readers of the HERALD were informed early in the campaign that the main effort of the ring would be to defeat the people's candidate, Mr. BEAUDRY. They, of course, have their candidates for Councilmen, but they expect to elect them by electing either Mr. TIFFANY or Mr. SABICHI. Mr. BEAUDRY is the objective point against which is leveled all their heavy guns. They had rather defeat him, and through him the people, than attain any other point of the campaign. As a proof of this we may mention that a few days ago a gentleman took a communication to the Express reflecting on another candidate, which he asked to have printed. He was told by the Express managers that his request could not be complied with; that it was the sole business of their paper to fight Mr. BEAUDRY; that he was the man they were laboring to defeat, and that they could not afford to turn their attention from him to any other man. The defeat of Mr. BEAUDRY is probably the contingency on which the Express is to receive a part of the pay for the dirty work in which it is now engaged.

On Sunday morning in a blacksmith-shop opposite the Corbett House, Carson City, William D. Mason was found dead. He died from intemperance and exposure, alone and uncared for. The deceased was a book-keeper of the State Prison under Singerland, and for two years was Journal Clerk of the Senate. He was between forty and fifty years old.

That Ticket.

As anticipated, the Evening Express hoists the ring ticket and heads its editorial column with an article laudatory of the assumed virtues of the candidates therein named. In that article we are told that it is "a respectable ticket," "an honest ticket," and such like recommendations, all of which are intended to deceive the people into the support of the ring's chosen instruments and fill our municipal offices with men who recognize the special franchise monopolies that have so long checked the prosperity and blighted the interests of our city, as paramount to the success of the people at large. There is also a clearly defined disposition on the part of the ring and through it on the part of the Express to give the munipal contest a political aspect, which is something that should not enter into an election where only the improvement and prosperity of a city should be the purpose aimed at. At the head of the ring ticket we find the name of GEO. O. TIFFANY, a gentleman, who once held the opinion that only those who are willing to swear that everything and every act of the Administration is right, are deserving the name of American citizens. Mr. TIFFANY is besides an ex-Federal officer, having held the place of Deputy Gauger until the Collector found he was not at all adapted for the business and was compelled to fill his place with another man. Lower down in the ticket we come to the name of A. G. MAPPA for City Assessor, another Federal officer whom Collector SEDGWICK tried and found anything but a success as a Deputy Collector. This gentleman, we are informed, has long held to the opinion that a man not willing to support any and every measure of the Administration afforded strong presumptive evidence that his honesty is more than questionable. What the ring expects to make of those two candidates, neither one of which is remarkable only for their strong radical principles, their failure as Federal officers and their probable subservency to the monopolies, we do not know, but it is certainly trying to elect them.

The Maligners of Private Character.

The people of Los Angeles owe it to themselves to place their seal of condemnation on the coarse, slanderous attacks on Mr. BEAUDRY'S private character by a sheet which is ready to become the venal tool of any man, party or organization for a compensation. Having exposed the slanders of the Express so often and showed to the community the object of its attacks, we deem it unnecesssry to occupy the time of our readers in refuting anything more it may say. We feel like offering an apology to our friends for so frequently bringing this subject before them. But we also feel that the interests of the entire city are at stake, and the reflecting part of the community will excuse us for kicking the nuisance out of the way. Mr. BEAUDRY is an old citizen of Los Angeles. He has lived here for nearly a quarter of a century and his private character is so well and so favorably known to all old residents that they naturally look with contempt on those who are base enough to invent and repeat day after day charges which all know are false; that their authors know to be so and that they were prompted to create and place them in circulation from the basest and most dishonorable motives. The citizens of Los Angeles are shocked at the libelous attacks made on one of their number, and to show their detestation o the course pursued by those who are opposing Mr. BEAUDRY, hundreds of citizens will vote for him who until his private character was falsely and maliciously assailed, had not thought of doing so. The people owe it to themselves to brand these vile slanderers, and we believe Monday evening will show that they have rebuked them and vindicated the character of their fellow-citizen.

Pacific Coast Items.

Rev. Dr. Jacobus of Alleghany City, Pennsylvania, is visiting Santa Barbara for the purpose of recruiting his health.

The San Diego Union estimates that by the close of the season the shipments of honey from that county will reach 500,000 pounds. Of comb-honey, 350,000 pounds have now been shipped.

D. O. Hunt of St. Helena, has just bought from Henry McCormick of the same place, a tract of about 1,000 acres of land—principally grazing—in the hills west of town. The price paid was $5,000.

The committee of the Grangers who have been examining for the best points on the Straits of Carquinez for the erection of warehouses, have, according to the Vallejo Chronicle, selected South Vallejo as the site for the northern side of the straits.

This is what the Vallejo Chronicle has to say about the late races: "The millenial era of honest horse-racing does not appear to have yet dawned. For days before the race there was a casting of shadows before, a murmur of events to come, 'as travelers hear the billows roll before they reach the sea.' The result was as predicted, to a letter."

MONDAY.....DEC. 7, 1874

Local Intelligence.

Beware of bogus tickets.

Now comes the tug of war.

Go to the polls and vote early.

The Supervisors hold their regular monthly session to-day.

The Orizaba sails for Santa Barbara and San Francisco to-day.

The Wm. Taber sailed for San Francisco yesterday.

Yesterday was as warm and sunny as mid-summer.

Gov. A. P. K. Safford of Arizona is stopping at the Pico House.

The funeral of Mr. J. M. Smalley took place from the Episcopal Church yesterday afternoon, and was well attended.

According to the provisions of the Political Code, the polls will be opened at one hour after sunrise to-day and kept open until sunset.

Let every man who has a vote use it to-day, and let him vote for the overthrow of all monopolies, cliques and rings.

The funeral services of A. A. Frazer occurred at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity. The deceased was a member of the Order sojourning in our city.

Los Angeles will hold a regiment of badly disappointed men to-night. Let them remember that the pony stage starts up Salt River early to-morrow morning.

The streets presented an unusual scene of activity yesterday. Politicians were driving the last spikes in their platforms, before the final adjustment of municipal matters, and anxiety sat brooding on the countenances of many.

The Sunday School Concert at the Fort Street Methodist Church passed off last night with the success which usually attends those pleasant affairs. There was a good attendance. The music, the efforts of the little ones in recitations, songs, etc., as well as the parts taken by the older members of the school formed a most agreeable entertainment.

Pleasure seekers should bear in mind that the Florence Kent troupe make their second debut in our city to-night. The play to be presented is not announced, but we are assured that there will be "fun, fun, fun!" Miss Florence Kent is one of the most popular actresses on the coast and she is supported by a talented troupe, so that we may expect a first-class performance in every respect. After a hard day's political fighting, politicians can drop in at Merced Theatre and "quaff this kind nepenthe" greatly to their good. All should attend to-night.

Brought to Light.

A few days since we published an item referring to some Masonic papers which were found among the effects of one Morrilla lately convicted of larceny in our County Court. The papers consisted of some memorandums tied up in a small package and a demit from a Masonic lodge in Scotland to Henry MacDowell bearing date of March 18th, 1868. The Anaheim Gazette quotes our item and adds the following bit of history to it:

The MacDowell referred to in the foregoing item was employed on the Los Angeles Rancho, in May, 1872. At his instance Morrilla was arrested for the larceny of a lot of papers. The papers, among which was a Masonic demit, were found in Morrilla's cabin by officers Davies and Byrd. After the preliminary trial of Morrilla in the Justice's Court, MacDowell got on a protracted spree, during which he visited Anaheim Landing, purchased a bottle of whisky, embarked in a light skiff belonging to Charley Smith, rowed over the bar, and was never heard of since. It was supposed at the time he had committe suicide during a fit of mental aberation, superinduced by his protracted debauch.

An Indorsement.

La Voce Del Populo, the leading Italian journal of San Francisco, in its issue of the 14th inst. publishes an editorial in which the merits of the different candidates for Mayor of Los Angeles are discussed, and Mr. BEAUDRY endorsed the man whom the people should elect. It truly says Mr. BEAUDRY has done and is doing more for this city than any other one or half dozen of her wealthy citizens.

H. H. Harmon for Assessor.

EDITOR HERALD: As your paper is independent and you are taking no part for or against any of the candidates for minor offices, I trust you will permit an old citizen to say a few words of one who, if elected, I know will faithfully discharge the duties of the position to which he aspires. I allude to Mr. H. H. Harmon, candidate for the office of City Assessor. He is a thoroughly competent man and is free from all cliques and rings. If he assesses the city he will show neither favor nor prejudice, and a few rich men will not escape paying a fair taxation on their property.

TAXPAYER.

Los Angeles, Dec. 5th.

The Widow and the Water Company.

"Hark; There is a knock at the door; Jane, see who it is."

Jane returns, "Its the water tax man."

"Tell him to call to-morrow it is not convenient to pay to-day."

He overhears the message and replies:

"I can't wait, you must pay this bill now or the water will be shut off before night; that's my orders from headquarters."

"The widow lady knows nothing of the tyranny of water monopolies, and asks who is "headquarters."

'Why the Water Company, Gov. B. and Col. C. and Dr. D. and Banker A."

"Are they so pushed for money that they can't wait a day or two for this little bill?"

"No, but they don't want to be bothered running a dozen times after a bill; they own the water and if you don't pay promptly they cut it off that's all. So you have your choice."

"But the bill is too much for the few buckets of water I use, anyhow I have lived in many places and I never paid half as much for water anywhere as I have to pay in Los Angeles, and I think for the amount they collect they could afford to wait a few days until I can raise it."

"I have no time to argue, the money must be paid or the water stopped."

Many such scenes have occurred in this city during the last few days. They are not quite so arbitrary now as they were a few months past. The election is to come off and the collectors are courteous. But wait till the election is over and listen to the imperative language of their agents. If they can only get their Mayor and Councilmen elected the water rates will rise until the purse of every house-keeper in the city will be swallowed up. This is no idle talk, the question of raising the rates has already been before the Board of Water Lords, and it will come again. The City Council have the right to fix the rates and if the Mayor will ratify their acts it becomes a law. Let all the people speak out boldly to-day and put in office men that will enforce the law and save us from oppression.

The Mayoralty.

To-day will be fought a decisive battle between the money combination and the people. The struggle is for the control of our municipal affairs. The money combination has selected as its candidate for Mayor Mr. SABICHI—a man over whom they assume and wield entire control. It also maintains in the field Mr. TIFFANY, a man also pledged to stand by and aid its schemes, but whom they have no hope of electing and only keep a candidate in the hope that he will draw a few votes which would otherwise be cast for Mr. BEAUDRY. These are the candidates of the combination. The people's candidate is Mr. BEAUDRY, a gentleman who has been slandered and maligned, traduced and villified, by the hired tools of the monopolists, as no gentleman was ever before traduced. If the people are true to their interests, true to the principles of honor and justice, true to themselves, they will win the fight and elect Mr. BEAUDRY by three hundred majority.

Senior or Junior?

We notice that Mr. TIFFANY'S name appears in the ring ticket as GEO. O. TIFFANY. This leaves it an open question whether the person casting one of these ballots is voting for the father or the son, as both bear the name of GEO. O. TIFFANY. If the father is the candidate, his name should be printed GEO. O. TIFFANY, Sen. As it does not so appear, we presume all the ballots, as printed, will not be counted, as the person intended to be voted for is not definitely stated.

The Friend of the Working Man.

MR. BEAUDRY is doing a great deal for poor men in the way of furnishing them cheap land for homes and in giving them employment at fair wages. He furnishes steady work to forty or fifty laborers. If the ring can destroy his water works and crush his enterprise he will build no more houses, and work on the streets he is cutting through hills will of course cease. A vast amount of property will be damaged and a large number of men thrown out of employment.

Tiffany Against the People.

The Express yells for TIFFANY, but avoids all allusion to or attempt at apology for that gentleman's going into the country with the Grand Jury of which he was Foreman, and a bucket of whitewash to whiten the Water Company's reservoir—a job as far out of his duty as his neglect to notice the complaints against the houses of ill fame was within it.

McDonald received his life sentence yesterday in the District Court.

Mendacious Libels of the "Express."

I. The BERNARD falsehood, which the card of Colonel SMITH, the record and the statement of BERNARD himself prove to be a wilful and premeditated falsehood invented to defeat Mr. BEAUDRY.

II. The ABILA falsehood, which the record nails down as false in every particular and which the ring admits was concocted in the hope that it would injure Mr. BEAUDRY.

III. The ROBERTS falsehood, which we have shown by the record to have been a bold scheme to blackmail Mr. BEAUDRY. Its character and purpose was explained by ROBERTS when he told Mr. BEAUDRY that if he did not come to his terms he would use his influence to defeat his (Mr. BEAUDRY'S) election.

IV. The STOEMER falsehood, which the record shows to have been an attempt to retain possession of property without paying for it, and which the ring admits was too palpable a falsehood to injure any one, much less a man as well and favorably known as Mr. BEAUDRY.

V. The falsehood that Mr. BEAUDRY used his influence as a member of the Council to obtain possession of property not his own. A silly lie and denounced as such by every member of the Council. This falsehood the ring says the Express invented itself in the hope that it would injure Mr. BEAUDRY.

We might fill columns with the falsehoods the Express has published for the purpose of injuring Mr. BEAUDRY, but the above are sufficient to inspire in the minds of all right-minded men a feeling of contempt for a paper that will sink itself to the level of the common slanderer and calumniator.

To-Day.

To-day will bring the grand culmination of the political excitement, and we believe all will experience a sense of relief when it is past, We do not anticipate any disorderly demonstrations. While there will be a strong undercurrent of political warfare, the peace and good order of the city will remain unruffled. The saloons will all be closed, in accordance with the provisions of the State statutes, or at least they will not sell intoxicating drinks. Enough interest has been excited in the election to call forth a full vote from our citizens, and we trust that none will be so devoid of public spirit as to let the day pass without exercising their prerogative. Vote early, that there may be no possible chance of a failure to cast the ballot, and vote for the best men—against all rings and monopolies and for the good of the city and the community. The polling places and officers of election, as designated by the Common Council, are as follows:

First Ward—At the house of Thornton P. Campbell, corner of Main and Marchessault streets; Inspector, Oscar Macy; Judges, Geo. Winters and Juan Voro.

Second Ward—At the rooms of the Common Council, Spring street; Inspector, Wm. McKee; Judges, C. Cabot and James H. Easton.

Third Ward—At the Round House, Main street, between Third and Fourth; Inspector, Wm. H. Dennison; Judges, Louis B. Martinez and S. B. Cox.

From what we have already been able to learn, we judge that there will be many bogus tickets in circulation, printed with the intention of deceiving the unguarded. Let every man look closely to this, and vote on nobody's dictum, but read his ticket through carefully and then read it again, to make assurance doubly sure.

The law makes the following provisions relative to ballots, which must be rigidly adhered to:

(1197.) No ballot or ticket must be used or circulatied on the day of any election having any mark or thing thereon, by or from which it can be ascertained what persons or what class of persons used or voted it, or at what time in the day such ballot was voted or used.

(1198.) Every ticket, when used as a ballot, must be folded crosswise from the center as follows: if twelve inches long (as the tickets voted in this election), four times; if eighteen inches long, five times; and if twenty-feur inches long, five times; and must be pressed flat.

SEC. 53. Every person who, by force, threats, menaces, bribery or any corrupt means, either directly or indirectly, attempts to influence any elector in giving his vote, or to deter him from giving the same, or attempts by any means whatever to awe, restrain hinder or disturb, any elector in the free exercise of the right of suffrage, or furnishes any elector wishing to vote who cannot read with a ticket, informing or giving such elector to underttand that it contains a name written or printed thereon different from the name which is written or printed thereon, or defrauds any elector at any such election by deceiving and causing such elector to vote for a different person for any office than he intended or desired to vote for, or who, being Inspector, Judge or Clerk of any election, while acting as such, induces or attempts to induce any elector, either by menace or reward or promise of thereof, to vote differently from what such elector intended or desired to vote, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 61. Every person who wilfully violates any of the provisions of the laws of this State relating to elections is, unless a different punishment for such violation is prescribed by this Code, punishable by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the State Prison not exceeding five years, or by both.

Every voter must be registered on the Great Register of the county; and all parties registered since August 1st, 1873, will be required to show a certificate of registration from the County Clerk. The election laws of the State, while the most exacting, at the same time offer the best protection to the honest voter. Let every man recognize this fact, and consider that his ballot is the highest right guaranteed him by his country, and that it is to be used judiciously and uprightly.

Look Out For The Express.

The Express will be out to-day with all kinds of falsehoods. It will say that the Water Company has sold out to Beaudry.

It will say that Beaudry has sold out to the Water Company.

It will say Beaudry offered Sacriste $1,500 to withdraw.

It will say that Sabichi has withdrawn.

It will say that all those things are true

The fact is that they are all false—false as the Express.

It will squirt its last venom to-day. Its falsehoods are all old disreputable tricks.

Mr. BEAUDRY asserts that no combination of any kind has, or will be made. Gentlemen who have communed with Dr. GRIFFIN, President of the Water Company, assure us that he says all the purchase and sale business is false. SABICHI is out with a Card denying that he has the remotest idea of withdrawing. The Express is prolific of falshoods, but is a stranger to truth. Heed nothing that it says. To-day is its last dodge on the eve of the election.

The Watered Press.

What is the matter with the watered press? Has Beaudry hired them to slander him? If so, he is a shrewd electioneerer; for it is notorious that their falsehoods and libels have helped him hundreds of votes. Many honest citizens who have known Mr. Beaudry for twenty-two years, but were indifferent as to the election, have been stirred up to vote for him by the shameless course of these newspapers. The most extraordinary part of it is, that it is only a few months since these essence peddlers of slander were bespattering Beaudry with the most sickening and disgusting praise. If the Water Company distributed water as freely as they do ink through these common sewers of vituperation, there would be no lack of the former beverage, at reasonable rates. Their biggest squirt would not empty the volume.

The honest voters, however, remember that these presses, just previous to the last election, changed base and went for their opposites in politics—so far, at least, as Treasurer was concerned. There were various reports then as to how much the somersault cost; but it is said they are getting more honest now, in as much as they have become a great deal cheaper than formerly. In short, their own competition has reduced the price of the article. The Sangrado of romance was said to have treated his patients by drenching them with clean warm water, but the Sangrados of the monopoly, it would appear, are resolved to kill off the citizens of Los Angeles by drenching them with mud and water through the sewers of the press. The course of the watered press has had an unfortunate result in one respect for the monopoly—it has pointed out to the public the candidates they wish elected. That will be sufficient for all candid voters. If a fellow sends his little dog abroad with a collar on on which is written "my dog," those who do not like the master will not be apt to pet the dog.

Is it not infamous that a man like Beaudry, who has been a useful, active citizen, against whom, until within a few weeks, not a word has ever been uttered, should now be made the object of unmeasured abuse and detraction, merely because he has become a candidate in the public interest, instead of that of a soulless corporation? It is a singular feature in the history of public affairs, if a monopoly that, finding that a man has no right to dig a well on his own land and distribute water to his neighbors, can by the use of money and hired presses, control municipal elections. It will be still more wonderful if the citizens of Los Angeles shall reject a worthy citizen because he is spending his time, energy and capital to furnish purer and cheaper water to the public. The monopoly is not satisfied to enter the lists of a fair competition, but desire that the citizens of Los Angeles should be compelled by law to take water of them at their own prices. Nor are they satisfied with an exclusive right to furnish water. They besiege almost every session of the Common Council for a new grant of lots and lands. If they succeed in the ensuing charter election, no prudent man will hereafter fix his home in the city limits.

Nevada Narrow-Gauge Railroad.

Humboldt In His Study.

Those who have seen the admirable colored lithograph of Hildebrant's picture know precisely how the room looks. There was the plain table, the writing-desk, covered with letters and manuscript, the little green sofa and the same maps and pictures on the drab-colored walls. The pictures had been so long hanging in my own room at home, that I at once recognized each particular object. Seifert went to the inner door, announced my name, and Humboldt immediately appeared. He came up to me with a heartiness and cordiality which made me feel I was in the presence of a friend, gave me his hand and inquired whether we should converse in English or German. "Your letter," said he, 'was that of a German, and you must certainly speak the language familiarly; but I am also in a constant habit of using English." He insisted on my taking one end of the green sofa, observing that he rarely sat upon it himself; then drew up a plain cane-bottomed chair and seated himself by it, asking me to speak a little louder than usual, as his hearing was not so acute as formerly. As I looked at the majestic old man, the line of Tennyson, describing Wellington, came into my mind—

Oh, good grey head, which all men knew.

The first impression made by Humboldt's face was that of a broad and genial humanity. His massive brow, heavy with the gathered wisdom of nearly a century, bent forward and overhung his breast like a ripe ear of corn; but as you looked below it, a pair of clear blue eyes, almost as bright and steady as a child's, met yours. In those eyes you read that trust in man, that immortal youth of the heart, which made the snows of eighty-seven winters lie so lightly on his head. You trusted him utterly at the first glance, and felt that he would trust you, if you were worthy of it. I had approached him with a natural feeling of reverence, but in five minutes I found that I loved him and that I could talk with him as freely as with a friend of my own age. His nose, mouth and chin had the heavy Teutonic character, whose genuine type has always expressed an honest simplicity and directness. I was almost surprised by the youthful character of his face. I knew that he had been frequently indisposed during the year and had been told that he was beginning to show the marks of extreme age; but I should not have suspected him of being over seventy-five. His wrinkles were few and small, and his skin had a smoothness and delicacy rarely seen in old men. His hair, although snow white, was still abundant, his step slow but firm, and his manner active almost to restlessness. He slept but four hours out of the twenty-four, read and replied to his daily letters, and suffered no single occurrence of the least interest in any part of the world to escape his attention. I could not conceive that his memory, the first mental faculty to show decay, was at all impaired. He talked rapidly, with the greatest apparent ease, never hesitating for a word, whether in English or in German, and in fact seemed to be unconscious which language he was using, as he changed four or five times during the conversation. He did not remain in his chair more than ten minutes at a time, frequently getting up and walking about the room, now and then opening a book or pointing to a picture to illustrate a remark.—From the Life of Alexander von Humboldt.

Arrest of a Youthful Incendiary.

CHICO, December 2d.—James Clark, son of J. A. Clarke, attorney-at-law, a boy aged about 14 years, who was accused of setting fire to the Brown Chapel, burned a few weeks ago, and who, on the day of his examination was found to be missing, was arrested today by the Marshal of this town near Biggs' Station, and brought back to Chico. He is held for examination to-morrow.

Grant and the Arkansas Case.

CHICAGO, December 3d.—A Washington special says there is good authority for the statement that the President in his message will make no recommendations in the Arkansas case, but will content himself with a recital of the principal political occurrences in that State since 1868, and the announcement that application had been made to him to interfere. It is believed that in this recital he will for the most part follow the statement of the brief of the attorney of V. V. Smith, without drawing any inference relative to the legal portions of the brief on making any recommendation.

The supporters of the Kellogg Government are assembling here in considerable numbers. Collector Casey and the Attorney-General are already here, and have stated that Governor Kellogg himself will surely come. He said some time ago that he expected a young lady from Germany, whom he would marry, and if she did not come by the 4th of December, he would shoot himself. This was probably the cause of the act. He is not yet dead but cannot recover.
